

Information for International Observers Regarding Observing Elections for Council Members and Representatives of National Minorities, that will be held on 7 May 2023

According to the rules for international observers for elections for council members and representatives of national minorities, international observers have right to observe method of election, election procedure and work of electoral bodies.

International observers are representatives from the international organizations that are engaged in election observation, representatives of diplomatic-consular missions located in the Republic of Croatia, representatives of international electoral associations and representatives of electoral commissions from other countries.

Application form for observing elections for council members and representatives of national minorities in Croatia is available on the web site of the State Electoral Commission of the Republic of Croatia (hereinafter: Commission).

Approval for election observation will be delivered without delay to the international organization or to international observer to the address indicated in the application form, by the Commission.

The Commission will issue an official ID card for every international observer who has approval for election observation.
